

A photograph of three people (two men and one woman) looking at a large, colorful Indigenous artwork on a wall. The artwork features a central figure with a face, surrounded by various symbols and patterns. The background shows a graffiti-covered wall and trees.

SONGLINES WALKING TOUR MELBOURNE.

The Songlines walking tour of inner city sites in Melbourne is designed to offer an insight into local Indigenous history and culture, with a view to increasing awareness and sensitivity to the social, political, physical and spiritual forces affecting many Indigenous Australians both in the past and today.

HOW TO BOOK

These tours run on demand, if you would like to attend please email nick@gmp.org.au with a preferred date and group size. Individual bookings welcome, you will be accommodated into the first available group.

“It had me thinking about what kind of legacy I want to leave behind from my own life ... How can I contribute to some healing for the injustices of the past?”

- Tour Attendee